

PETERSEN AUTOMOTIVE MUSEUM

The Westside neighbourhoods

The westside is known for its top restaurants, high-end shopping, palm tree lined streets and acclaimed cultural attractions.

Beverly Hills: is known worldwide as a premier destination for luxury. Stroll along world-famous Rodeo Drive and admire the incomparable designer boutiques.

Century City: Born from the backlot of historic Fox Studios, Century City is home to gleaming high rises and luxe hotels, where movers and shakers work and play.

Mid-City/Mid-Wilshire: is a vital hub for culture, art and dining. Stroll through the La Brea Tar Pits and peruse the impressive collection of exhibits at the L.A. County Museum of Art. Shop at The Grove and grab a bite at The Original Farmer's Market.

Westwood: Visit the UCLA campus or explore the Hammer Museum's renowned collections of modern and Impressionist art.

Sawtelle/Japantown: a slice of Japanese culture on the Westside. The historic neighbourhood has become a foodie paradise, home to authentic Japanese restaurants, modern eateries, artisan coffee and ramen shops.

Brentwood: is one of L.A.'s most affluent neighbourhoods, known for its palatial estates, tree-lined streets, A-list residents and home of the famed Getty Center.

Culver City: One of L.A.'s most historic and scenic neighbourhoods. Tour the Sony Pictures Studio, which was the original MGM Studios. Explore the Helms Bakery District for its eclectic mix of bookstores, furniture stores and top notch dining.
