WELCOME

GREETINGS FROM ANAHEIM!

WE ARE PROUD TO SAY our city welcomed over 24 million visitors in 2018. Whether you come for work or play, we invite you to experience our world-renowned attractions, dine like a foodie, sip award-winning craft beers and specialty cocktails, revel in our vibrant nightlife, and choose your own sun-soaked Southern California adventure. For one day or several, you'll find plenty to do.

We created our official Visit Anaheim Destination Guide to help you discover a playground geared towards you and your family. Our website, visitanaheim.org, is an even better resource for when you're on the move.

Anaheim is best known as home to Disneyland® Resort, featuring Disneyland® Park and Disney California Adventure® Park, and there are many more unique places and activities to explore after a visit to the Magic Kingdom. Inside this guide, you'll find many only-in-Anaheim experiences worth having.

Anaheim continues growing, evolving, and flourishing as a dynamic destination with its own cultural footprint in the arts, cuisine, entertainment, sports, and recreation. Be sure to visit Anaheim GardenWalk—the unique “eatertainment” destination for dining, nightlife, and outdoor art. It's also home to House of Blues' flagship location. For sports fans, year-round options include Major League Baseball games at Angel Stadium or the National Hockey League's Anaheim Ducks at Honda Center. Thrill-seekers can test their mettle at Flightdeck, a military flight simulator taking pilots to 600 knots for aerial maneuvers and air-to-air combat.

Let ARTIC—Anaheim Regional Transportation Intermodal Center, connecting trains, buses, taxis, and, Anaheim Resort Transportation (ART)—help you make your way around Anaheim and Orange County. With its central location, Anaheim is a convenient gateway to O.C.'s 42 miles of Pacific Ocean coastline, luxury shopping, championship golf courses, and the ideal terrain for hiking, biking, running, and sunning.

Your adventure is just beginning. Experience Anaheim. And have some fun!

NEW TO DO

In the city where imagination reigns, exciting innovations are always waiting to be discovered.

Part of the magic of returning to Anaheim is revisiting what has taken you by surprise before. But even more, coming back—or visiting for the first time—is a guarantee of all-new captivating experiences. Imagineers aren't the only ones with big visions for our city. Whether it's a fresh taste, unheard sound, or top-notch hospitality that sweeps you off your feet, use this list to find your next adventure, then add it to your itinerary this year and for years to come.

ANAHEIM MAKE

Do as the Locals Do

Take the evening off from being a tourist and blend in to the local scene at the MAKE building in the Anaheim Packing District, where live music plays on the outdoor patio on weekends. Fill up on Texas-style brisket at JAV'S BBQ, unwind with a brew from UNSUNG BREWERY, or select a California wine at PALLI. Want to keep the evening going? It's a short walk to Center City's West Center Street Promenade, where LIBATIONS AND GAMING has a gallery of arcade and video games, and DECADES promises a steady playlist of '80s and '90s hits. Use FRAN, UBER, or LYFT to make the rounds through Center City. anaheimmake.com, ctricityanaheim.com

DOWNTOWN DISNEY® DISTRICT

Go Downtown at Disney

Even if Downtown Disney® District is already part of your annual routine, chances are that you'll hardly recognize it in 2019, since almost every retail space and restaurant underwent renovations last year. From the highly-anticipated ice cream outpost SALT & STRAW to magical flourishes that enhance WORLD OF DISNEY®, here you'll encounter the makings of hours of food and fun. Families will enjoy taking on a "Star Wars"-themed mission at the virtual reality destination THE VOID, SPLITSVILLE LUXURY LANES, and try on Disney-themed looks at THE DRESS SHOP. For more, see p. TK. disneyland.disney.go.com

CAMBRIA SUITES

Upgrade your Stay

There are so many fantastic places to stay in Anaheim that it's worth trying something new each time you visit: our hotels are destinations in themselves. Several openings slated for 2019 are already underway. Book now at the HAMPTON INN & SUITES at the Anaheim Resort and Convention Center; CAMBRIA SUITES, opening in Spring 2019; or ELEMENT BY WESTIN for a never-before-experienced night's rest. cambriasuitesanaheim.com, hamptoninn3.hilton.com, element-hotels.marriott.com

Satisfy your Sweet Tooth

Okay, indulging in dessert is as old as sugarcane, but sweets are finally getting their due in Anaheim. New shops are devoted to unusually decadent creations, and the LA Cookie Convention is taking over the Anaheim Convention Center in February 2019. There are more confectioneries in town than space here to list them, but be on the lookout for ice cream and candy shops taking inspiration from Japan, Hungary, Mexico, and Sweden. For more, see p. 28.

BUCKET LIST

Don't leave Anaheim without checking off at least one of the activities included here. From gravity-defying thrills to our thriving beer scene, live entertainment to a global variety of tastes, and not one but two professional sports teams, we cover the bases of our city here. Think of this as the essentialist's guide to our galaxy—a boilerplate agenda you can take and make your own.

SWINGIT TRAPEZE

Go for a Ride

It could be Knott's Berry Farm's HANGTIME, the only roller coaster on the West Coast to feature a drop exceeding 90 degrees. It could be the waterslide at your hotel. However you get your thrills, just make sure you get them. Local businesses FLIGHTDECK, a fighter plane simulator; SKYZONE, a trampoline park; and SWINGIT, a trapeze school, are on hand to help make sure you defy gravity at least once during your stay. knotts.com, flightdeck1.com, skyzone.com/anaheim, swingittrapeze.net

Listen to Live Music

Anaheim is home to some of Orange County's best venues. At the HOUSE OF BLUES and HONDA CENTER, you can hear everything from soulful tunes to the world's greatest names in pop music. Or don proper dinner attire and prepare for an evening of immersive performance with a four-course meal at TEATRO MARTINI. If a show's not quite your scene, we make live art hard to miss with musicians regularly playing at the Packing District, art walks, and parades. houseofblues.com/anaheim, hondacenter.com, teatromartini.com

BERRY FARM®

Knott's Berry Farm is an iconic theme park with attractions and entertainment in four themed areas inspired by the history and culture of California. Offering endless fun with rides for all thrill levels, live shows, interactive entertainment, and delicious food, Knott's is a must do for locals and tourists from around the world.

Located just 10 minutes from Anaheim, getting to Knott's has never been easier.

Eat Well

From offerings that can only be found at Disneyland® Resort to our favorite local restaurants around town, foodies feel right at home here. CENTER CITY is the bustling historic district that now encompasses the many eateries within the Packing District, Good Food Hall, and West Center Street Promenade. We're also home to LITTLE ARABIA, and with LITTLE SAIGON in nearby Westminster, there's an authentic experience waiting for you any night of the week. crtcityanaheim.com, littlearabiadistrict.com, eater.com

Cheer for the Home Team

Let the time of year determine whether you root for MLB's ANGELS or the NHL's DUCKS. On some nights in April, May, and Oct., you might even score a double-header. The pro teams' stadiums are across the street from each other and within walking distance of the train station (ARTIC). If you're planning a pre-game celebration, look for bars and restaurants near Platinum Triangle that will comp your parking during the event.

Sip on Something Local

Anaheim was founded by a Bavarian community who instilled their love of beer. After Prohibition, we had to rebuild our beer scene, but now it's not going anywhere. Get to know over two dozen breweries, tap rooms, wine bars, stillhouses, and more on p. 26.

Hug the Coast to Anaheim

A great escape awaits when you take the Amtrak® Pacific Surfliner®. Sink back in your seat as you cruise along tracks that parallel bustling highways, taking in some of Southern California's most iconic scenery. Enjoy onboard amenities and daily service between San Diego, Orange, Los Angeles, Ventura, Santa Barbara, and San Luis Obispo counties.

Frequent service, convenient connections and everyday discounts make the train an easy way to visit popular destinations without a car. When you take the Pacific Surfliner to Anaheim, your getaway begins before you arrive.

ZOV'S

ANAHEIM'S NEWEST & HOTTEST RESTAURANTS

Discover the diversity of Anaheim right on your plate.

FROM TRENDY, OPEN-PLAN BUILDINGS STOCKED WITH BUSY restaurants to local gems tucked into strip malls, there is an unforgettable dish waiting for everyone visiting Anaheim. Keep this list handy whether you're looking to one-up what you fell in love with last time or want to expand your palate. Either way, start here for an incredible dining experience from drinks through dessert.

18 FOLDS

Occupying a farmhouse building in the famous Packing District, this all-day dim sum concept focuses on a secret soup dumpling recipe. A variety of local brews flows from 18 taps, while each dumpling—deep-fried or steamed—requires a precise 18 folds. 430 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-386-5768; 18finc.com

ZOV'S

Owner Zov Karamardian received the 2016 Chef of the Year award from the OC Restaurant Association's Golden Foodie Awards after her Anaheim location opened in 2014. Her hearty Mediterranean food is perfect pre-game fare since the Angels and the Ducks play right around the corner, and it comes with free self-parking validation. 1801 E. Katella Ave., Anaheim; 714-280-9687; zovs.com

REUNION KITCHEN + DRINK

A dozen hearty salads comprise the "fresh produce" section of the menu at this clean-eating approach to comfort food, while classic burgers and sandwiches dominate the rest. It's worth the drive for the relaxed atmosphere and thoughtful draft list, which doesn't skimp on local beers. 5775 E. Santa Ana Canyon Road, Anaheim; 714-283-1062; reunionkitchen.net

OKAYAMA KOBO BAKERY & CAFÉ

Chef Kawakami's sweet and savory pastries are made from his blend of additive-free flour from Hokkaido, so both traditional Japanese recipes and seasonal inventions share that light, fluffy dough we can't find elsewhere. The full-service coffee bar features locally-roasted Groundwork beans. Ask for a 2-hour parking validation with purchase. 155 W. Center St. Promenade, Anaheim; 714-603-7332; okayamakobousa.com

POUR VIDA LATIN FLAVOR

Expanding upon his Puerto Rican and Mexican heritage, chef Jimmy Martínez infuses eclectic and gourmet ingredients like tempura batter and truffle into his taco-centric menu. Daily pressed juices and housemade margaritas go a long way to counteract any heat. 185 W. Center St. Promenade, Anaheim; 657-208-3889; pourvidalatinflavor.com

ANAHEIM WHITE HOUSE

This high-end Italian homestead reopened in 2018 after a fire closed its doors; now guests can enjoy a brand new cocktail lounge, beautifully restored dining room, and the same impeccable service. With every order, chef Bruno Serato provides meals and services to youth through their sister charity, Caterina's Club. 887 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-772-1381; anaheimwhitehouse.com

MODERN FILIPINO KITCHEN BY AYSEE

Make an advance reservation for family-style Kamayan service, a $40 prix fixe menu of spiced meats, dipping sauces, rice, and other ingredients you'll eat with your hands over spread-out banana leaves. Hint: stop at the liquor store next door if you plan to BYOB. 2620 W. La Palma Ave., Anaheim; 657-337-5288; mfkaysee.com

JAV'S BBQ

If 16 hours in a smoker means something to you, then get in line over at MAKE opposite the Packing House. That's where founder and Anaheim native Javier Gomez' meats, sides, and sandwiches are 'cued up in the Central Texas tradition. 500 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 657-208-3587; javssbbq.co

SWEETBIRD

This new arrival to the Anaheim Packing House does one thing well: fried chicken sandwiches. Piled high on a buttery bun with different styles of coleslaw and pickles, all you have to choose are your spice level and sides, like smashed potatoes for $4 or pickled habanero for $1. 440 S. Anaheim Blvd., 714-905-9832; eatsweetbird.com

SPIN POKE AND GRILL

Straight from Hawaii, this simple marinated fish dish has made big waves in SoCal. Spin is a trusted source for fresh seafood, both raw and grilled, and with options for signature and build-your-own bowls, you can get creative with your order or leave it to the experts. 1081 N. Tustin Ave., Anaheim; 657-208-3383; spinpoke.com

CULTIVATION KITCHEN

Located in a greenhouse in the Packing District's Farmers Park, this brand-new eatery grows its own ingredients on site, serving light salads, sandwiches, bowls, and more. The "farm to fork" ethos extends to locally-sourced teas, coffees, and a beer and wine menu. 400 S. Anaheim Blvd.; cultivationkitchen.com

HEALTHY JUNK

Vegans don't always have many options when it comes to comfort food, so they'll love you if you bring them here, where a housemade "cheez" oozes through menu items like an Anaheim "burger" and vegan nachos. Located in Good Food Hall, the restaurant even puts on a community-wide Vegan Faire every summer. 201 W. Center St. Promenade, Anaheim; thehealthyjunk.com

THE 5 BEST NEW RESTAURANT DISHES

Tempura Artichoke Hearts
 Sit at the bar to order this elegant vegetarian and gluten-free appetizer, delicately fried and served with housemade burrata. Anaheim White House, 887 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-772-1381, anaheimwhitehouse.com

Shanghai Soup Dumplings
 You'll want to order several kinds, but we love these for the burst of flavorful, pork-infused broth with each bite. 18 Folds, 430 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-386-5768; 18finc.com

Spicy Fried Chicken Sandwich
 One of few options on chef Hugh Pham's menu, the combination of honey and batter makes this bird sing. Sweetbird, 440 S. Anaheim Blvd., 714-905-9832, eatsweetbird.com

Kamayan Service
 As one of your six proteins for the table, choose the whole fried fish—it's both authentic to the Philippines and show-stopping. Modern Filipino Kitchen, 2620 W. La Palma Ave., Anaheim; 657-337-5288; mfkaysee.com

Ridiculous Sundae
 You're on vacation, so err on the ridiculous side with this perfect final note topped with all the sauce, salted peanuts, and marshmallow fluff. Zov's Anaheim, 1801 E. Katella Ave., Anaheim; 714-280-9687; zovs.com

STORYTELLERS CAFE

THE FAMILY TABLE

DINING AS A FAMILY SHOULD BE A TRIP HIGHLIGHT, NOT GROUNDS FOR DISAGREEMENT.

Fortunately, there's no need to compromise when everyone's favorites are on the menu. These local establishments will happily—and heartily—accommodate the whole family.

ORIGINAL PANCAKE HOUSE

This reliable breakfast chain knows its pancakes. Their house specialty is an oven-baked Dutch Baby, a German-style pancake like an oversized popover. Order it topped with warm apple slices and cinnamon or with a side of thick-cut bacon. It's definitely worth the wait for a table when the restaurant is busy.
1418 E. Lincoln Ave., Anaheim; 714-535-9815; originalpancakehouse.com

STORYTELLERS CAFE

Located within Disney's Grand Californian Hotel® & Spa, be sure to reserve their popular character meals in advance. Better yet—skip the breakfast buffet and let everyone choose from the menu at this sit-down establishment where you can have fun with Mickey and his friends.
1600 S. Disneyland Drive, Anaheim; 714-781-3463; disneyland.disney.go.com

THE SCRATCH ROOM

When planning the most important meal of the day, consider the hefty menu of skillets, benedicts, omelettes, breakfast burgers, and Mexican-inspired plates at this unassuming café. The family-run business won Best Breakfast from CityVoter's O.C. Hot List two years in a row.
2415 Lincoln Ave., Anaheim; 714-236-5613; thescratchroom.com

FIRE + ICE

The focal point of this upstairs GardenWalk eatery is the huge Mongolian-style grill where chefs prepare meals—with a range of Asian, American, Latin, and Italian flavors—in full view. Each person chooses their own fresh ingredients and sauces from a continually-replenished buffet. And, since it's all-you-can-eat, you can afford to be adventurous.
400 Disney Way, Anaheim; 714-808-9757; fire-ice.com

MAMA COZZA'S

Even picky eaters love a good bowl of pasta or slice of pizza, but this Italian diner is the real deal. Foodies should know it comes recommended by The Food Network's Guy Fieri and rocker Gwen Stefani, who grew up frequenting it in its 45-year history and still returns regularly.
2170 W. Ball Road, Anaheim; 714-635-0063; mamacozzas.com

WINNER, WINNER Mrs. Knott's Chicken Dinner Restaurant has been enticing crowds since Cordelia Knott added fried chicken to her menu of tea, biscuits, and jam back in 1934. Those same crowds, bored and hungry, inspired Walter Knott to offer entertainment, planting a seed for the Berry Farm of today. The remodeled dining hall still serves the classic recipe along with so much more—including boysenberry-infused cocktails for the adults.

THE DISH

A conversation with the mastermind behind Jav's BBQ Co.

Javier Gomez wasn't always a pitmaster. But even when he worked for a corporate bank doing data analysis, he brought home-cooked barbecue to the office for his colleagues to taste and critique. It wasn't until after his company went through three years of cutbacks that his position was finally eliminated. Soon, Gomez began working out how to turn his passion—and severance package—into a gig, envisioning a trailer with a smoker he could bring to events.

"I spoke to my wife and I said, hey, how about this idea? And she said, 'You're crazy. You need a job. This is your hobby,'" Gomez said. Trying a different tack, he proposed a road trip. He'd been working on his recipes, and this way, the family could spend time together, tasting how his cooking compared to authentic barbecue in the South. Turned out, it did. The Gomez family traveled over 4500 miles through Arkansas, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Louisiana, Mississippi, and, of course, Texas. "We came home, and I said to my wife, what do you think? She gave me the thumbs up."

An Anaheim native, Gomez started selling his creations at the weekly farmer's market, where they sold out within hours of opening. He also rented a commercial kitchen for catering. When a restaurant space became available at MAKE two years later, the Anaheim Packing District approached him to become one of their vendors. "The spot was so perfect. They said, 'Look, you'll be doing barbecue right here in your hometown. There's a brewery, there's a winery, there's a whiskey bar eventually going in,' and everything just made sense."

Gomez still needed funding to pull it off. An all-or-nothing Kickstarter campaign missed its mark, but with steady catering jobs, he accumulated the capital he needed. Two more trips to Texas further informed his research. "That was the style I was doing at home without even realizing: 100% wood smoke, a dry rub." Later, he added his own barbecue sauce to the mix.

Now that he has the full support of his family and community, Gomez is still taking suggestions. When he first introduced his brisket, a customer who had become a friend approached him. "He was originally from Austin, and he said, 'Just to let you know, your barbecue is great, but your brisket is not my top ten.'" Gomez went back to work, putting his analytic skills to use. "Eventually he came back, and he said, 'This is top three for me.'"

THE PITMASTER AND THE PLACE:

Javier Gomez

Jav's BBQ Co., 500 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-844-2680; javsbbq.co

RECOMMENDED ORDER:

"Always stick with the brisket, and always ask for it moist. In Texas, they say fat or lean. Here in California, we go moist or more on the dry side."

FAVORITE PLATES OF FOOD IN ANAHEIM:

"I've always enjoyed the basic pasta at the White House. I grew up with it. Also the steaks at The Ranch: amazing. I love meat, so that's what I usually go for, and my wife's more of the pasta lover." *Anaheim White House, 887 S. THE CATCH

MEETING FOR MEALS

IF YOU'RE TRAVELING FOR BUSINESS, YOU MAY NOT HAVE TIME TO DIG THROUGH REVIEWS to find places that meet your criteria: fresh ingredients and great service, work space where needed, and enough caffeine to keep you at your sharpest. Meals are your chance to refuel and reset, but they also can be an opportunity to show off some local knowledge or put the finishing touches on that proposal. We've done the work for you with our top choices below:

Over Coffee

For the ultimate sweet and savory pastry selection, plus a fresh cup of hot Groundwork coffee that's roasted locally in Los Angeles, stop by OKAYAMA KOBO BAKERY en route to your first work session of the day. New to Anaheim, the independently-owned bakery already has two locations in Okayama Prefecture, Japan. 155 W. Center St. Promenade, Anaheim; 714-603-7332; okayamakobousa.com

Let Kyoto-style cold brew, cold-pressed juices, and avocado toast at GROW COFFEE AND TEA give you and your colleagues a healthy start. Need more of a pick-me-up? Try the Eye Opener, a jolt of coffee and espresso, while you absorb a little vitamin D at an outdoor table. 1035 N. Tustin Ave., Anaheim; 714-632-9922; growcoffeeandtea.com

Over Lunch and Dinner

Theresa Lin Cheng, the "Julia Child of Taiwan," helms the kitchen at TRU GRITS, serving traditional American dishes alongside Asian-American fusion specialties. The spacious dining room at the Four Points by Sheraton Anaheim is perfect for midday meetings over hearty sandwiches; afterwards, you can migrate to the hotel lobby to get more work done. 1221 S. Harbor Blvd., Anaheim; 714-758-0900; tru-grits.com

Dine comfortably with clients at THE CATCH, an upscale landmark establishment within walking distance of Angel Stadium, City National Grove of Anaheim, and ARTIC. Try hearty seafood soups followed by the catch of the day, or enjoy their steakhouse offerings paired with your choice of roughly 50 kinds of whiskey. 2100 E. Katella Ave., Anaheim; 714-935-0101; catchanaheim.com

Over Drinks

Next to the Anaheim Convention Center, Marriott's NFUSE BAR AND KITCHEN offers well-crafted cocktails, reasonably priced wines by the glass, the obligatory long list of local brews, and even flights of whiskey. There's no happy hour menu, but you'll definitely find satisfaction in their sophisticated bar eats. Hidden outlets and Wi-Fi in the bar area allow you to remain productive after hours. 700 W. Convention Way, Anaheim; 714-750-8000; marriott.com

From the owners of Colony Wine Merchant (which is just around the corner if you prefer vino), PROMENADE PUB is a welcome addition to Center City's beer scene. Drop in at the end of your day for a happy hour that offers $5 drafts. Rotating taps are well represented by O.C. breweries, and they often feature new releases. Bonus: the food menu is simple, straightforward, and always fresh. 215 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-860-4555; promenadepub.com

LOBSTER NACHOS

CHURROS

THE DISNEY DINING GUIDE

EATING WELL IS A GIVEN AT DISNEYLAND® RESORT. BUT WITH so many options, it's wise to have a plan in place to stay sated and avoid crankiness throughout the day. Use these selections to find meals and snacks that sustain and satisfy as much as they delight and entertain, from our all-time favorites to the limited-edition flavors we can't get enough of.

FRIED CHICKEN PLATE

PLAZA INN

If you eat one thing at Disneyland® Park, let it be this. Served with all the trimmings, local chef Leonard Chan calls it "the perfect comfort food." $17.99

LOBSTER NACHOS

LAMPLIGHT LOUNGE

With tender lobster pieces, house-made chips, and a cheddar and Oaxacan cheese sauce, this decadent snack was always a worthwhile splurge at Cove Bar. Now Pixar Pier's newest lounge has taken up the mantle. $20

CHILI-LIME CORN ON THE COB

EDELWEISS SNACKS

Anything made from corn at Disneyland® Resort seems to hit the spot a little more—corn dogs, corn bread, you get the idea. We like ours in its natural form, drizzled with a citrusy mayo that brings the heat and dusted with Parmesan cheese and spices. $4.79

TURKEY LEG

TURKEY LEG CARTS

A classic Disney® snack. This oversized drumstick, cured and smoked, can stave off hunger for hours, and it leaves room in your budget for more frivolous treats. $14.99 and under

MONTE CRISTO SANDWICH

CAFE ORLEANS

This is not your regular turkey, ham and Swiss. The whole thing is treated like French Toast: dipped in batter, fried, powdered with sugar, and served with a bright berry sauce. $21

FRIED PICKLES

CARNATION CAFE

Rather than batter, these dill spears are coated in light panko bread crumbs and Parmesan cheese before frying. Dip 'em in a creamy ranch dressing to complete the experience. $8

DOLE WHIP

TIKI JUICE JAR

This soft serve dessert's cult following has only been strengthened by the now-requisite Instagram posts. Pro tip: try it as a float with pineapple juice or on its own. $6.49 and under

LIMITED EDITION CHURROS

CHURRO CARTS

Found at frequent intervals throughout the parks, our sources say this cinnamon sugar pastry qualifies as "its own food group" within Disneyland® Resort. Select from rotating flavors and dipping sauces as the seasons and attractions change. $5.25

NESTLÉ® MICKEY'S ICE CREAM BAR

CLARABELLE'S

We couldn't finish this list without something Mickey-shaped. A quick snap of this chocolate-coated vanilla ice cream bar is the perfect way to say you've made it to Disneyland® Resort. $4.99

Ballast Point at DOWNTOWN DISNEY® District Now Open

We're excited to announce that Ballast Point Brewery and Kitchen is now open in the DOWNTOWN DISNEY® District. Stop by to enjoy the freshest batches of our most popular beers, including our award-winning Sculpin® IPA and exclusive specialty beers brewed onsite. The menu offers localized fare as well as a taste of San Diego with some of its most popular brewpub dishes.

ANAHEIM BREWERY

ON TAP

HOP TO IT! ORIGINALLY FOUNDED BY 50 GERMAN

families with a deeply-ingrained love of beer, it took the repeal of Prohibition and the rise of craft brewing to bring Anaheim back to its roots.

Today, a diverse group of brewers constitutes our city's hopping beer scene, a standout across Southern California. While tasting made-in-Anaheim brews consistently makes our annual Bucket List (p. 10), you'd be hard pressed to hit all our top picks in a single visit. So use this list of breweries—complemented by thoughtful wine bars and shops—to help you choose your approach, then come back for more.

Breweries

ALL AMERICAN ALE WORKS

The 16 taps at this patriotic-themed tasting room are stocked with year-round and seasonal beers, plus craft sodas. Try the Renegade Warrior, an American IPA, or choose Liberty Or Death, a brown porter with peanut butter. 5120 E. La Palma Ave., Anaheim; 657-549-2140; all-americanaleworks.com

ANAHEIM BREWERY

With its pre-Prohibition name, cozy indoor bar, and 100-seat beer garden, this Packing District destination is a vibrant local standby. The flagship beer, Anaheim 1888, is inspired by the brewery's century-old roots. 336 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-780-1888; anaheimbrew.com

ASYLUM BREWING

One of the smaller shops on the "La Palma Beer Trail," Asylum packs a strong local punch with a Munich-inspired lager alongside their signature Mosaic dank IPA. Their Game of Thrones arcade game adds an extra point in their favor. 2970 E. La Palma Ave., Anaheim; 949-396-2099; asylumbrewingcompany.com

BACKSTREET BREWERY

Unlike its pop music counterpart, this BSB has remained relevant since 1998—we credit their lineup of crowd-pleasing blondes, IPAs, saisons, and reds. Friendly service, communal tables, and room to sit outside make the warehouse setting warm and approachable. 1884 S. Santa Cruz St., Anaheim; 657-236-4050; backstreetbrew.com

BOTTLE LOGIC BREWING

A darling of the craft beer world, Bottle Logic releases small batches of beers that earn high praise from aficionados. From their She Shot First pale wheat ale to the quintessential Calf Life milk stout, pours are priced from 4 ounces to growlers, so stock up or taste them all. 1072 N. Armando St., Anaheim; 714-660-2537; bottlelogic.com

BREWHEIM

The experienced beer makers behind this brand-new neighborhood brewery in Platinum Triangle are pursuing modern flavors using time-honored techniques. Expect a rotating menu of barrel-aged beers, sours, hazy IPAs, and other crowd-pleasers. 1931 E. Wright Circle, Anaheim; 714-453-4346; brewheim.com

BRUERY TERREUX

Born from beer royalty, Bruery Terreux shares an owner with Placentia's The Bruery and focuses exclusively on farmhouse-style wild and sour ales. Visitors will find taps from both establishments, plus food trucks parked outside. 1174 N. Grove St., Anaheim; 714-996-6258; brueryterreux.com

GOLDEN ROAD BREWING

The L.A. brand's Anaheim taproom expanded into a full-service restaurant and brewery in late 2017. Across the street from Angel Stadium, the bustling indoor-outdoor venue opens daily and sells cans and growler fills to-go. 2210 E. Orangewood Ave., Anaheim; 714-912-4015; goldenroad.la

HOPARAZZI BREWING CO.

Taking decor inspiration from old Hollywood glamour, this brewery offers about a dozen taps, with experimental sours in the limelight. Take a seat with a view of the fermentation room at the long bar made from a reclaimed bowling alley. 2910 E. La Palma Ave., Ste. D, Anaheim; hoparazzibrewing.com

JT SCHMID'S RESTAURANT AND BREWERY

This Platinum Triangle eatery brews six of its own beers in-house. The best time to try them could be after an Angels home game, when a special late-night happy hour is added. 2610 E Katella Ave., Anaheim; 714-634-9200; jtsschmidrestaurants.com

KARL STRAUSS

A force in San Diego's beer scene since 1989, Karl Strauss' Anaheim brewpub is a beast of a building with an appropriately large tap list and generous happy hour menu. Tour the facilities with an advance reservation. 2930 E. Orangewood Ave., Ste. 100, Anaheim; 714-940-1772; karlstrauss.com

LEGENDS CRAFT BREWERY

Located in an industrial park, this large warehouse-style brewery gives a warm welcome to guests, dogs, and rotating food trucks. Their Oreo cookie-inspired Double Stuff stout is also on tap at Disney California Adventure® Park. 1301 S. Lewis St., Anaheim; 888-327-0202

DESIGNATE A DRIVER

Head to p. 84 to map out Anaheim's public transportation and ridesharing options.

NOBLE ALE WORKS

Having undergone a recent expansion, Noble is now brewing more beer than ever. Be sure to stop by their tasting room en route to Angel Stadium or the Honda Center for free event parking and the perfect pre-game pint. 1621 S. Sinclair St., Ste. B, Anaheim; 714-634-2739; noblealeworks.com

PHANTOM ALES

Their hybrid brewery and home brew shop also offers dishes prepared especially to pair with your pour. Staff members are on hand to answer any questions visitors may have about brewing their own beer. 1211 N. Las Brisas St., Anaheim; 714-225-3206; phantomales.com

TOWNE PARK BREW CO.

Born of the foothills of Orange County's Saddleback Mountain, this newly-opened tasting room serves mostly ales with regular community-centric events, like Taco Tuesdays and trivia nights. 1566 W. Lincoln Ave., Anaheim; 714-844-2492; towneparkbrew.com

UNSUNG BREWING CO.

This tasting room and pilot brewery at MAKE serves a distinct lineup of small-batch beers with superhero names, including Buzzman—a “mutant American ale”—and cold brew coffee on tap. 500 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-406-3098; unsungbrewing.com

Brimming with Ambience

TRADER SAM'S TIKI BAR

Try the Shipwreck or Shrunken Zombie Head at this Disneyland® Hotel lounge that feels like its own attraction. A spacious outdoor patio features heaters and romantic lighting, while seats at the bar unexpectedly drop from under you. 1150 Magic Way, Anaheim; 714-778-660; disneyland.disney.go.com

THE BLIND RABBIT

Following the tradition of the speakeasy, this cocktail bar has a covert entrance, crafty mixologists, and a menu of eclectic dishes to go along with your drink order. Make a reservation to ensure a spot inside. 440 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; theblindrabbit.com

Wine & Cocktails

COLONY WINE MERCHANT

Anaheim's Center City is home to Colony Wine Merchant, a wine bar and retail shop. Whether guests are newcomers or connoisseurs, the friendly staff can recommend a sip to suit them. 280 S. Lemon St., Anaheim; 657-208-1860; colonywinerchant.com

PALI WINE CO.

Processing casks directly from their vineyard in Lompoc, this is the only functioning production facility in Anaheim where you can drink minimally-processed wine from the tap. 500 S. Anaheim Blvd.,

Anaheim; 714-486-0922, paliwineco.com

HI-TIME WINE CELLARS

Find high-quality spirits, beer, and wine at this multi-level store with a wine bar and cellar, refrigerated beer room, and knowledgeable staff. If this entry seems miscellaneous, it's because nothing quite like it exists. 250 Ogle Street, Costa Mesa; 800-331-3005; hitimewine.net

Coming Soon

ELECTRICA CRAFT BREWERY

We're not sure when the lights will turn on at this incoming concept from the mixologists at Urbana, but when they do, their take on cerveza promises to go well beyond your standard Mexican import. ctricityanaheim.com

MODERN TIMES' LEISURETOWN

This “beer mecca” from the popular employee-owned San Diego label will be part experimental brewing facility, part poolside bar, and all kinds of awesome. moderntimesbeer.com

STONE GROOVE STILLHOUSE

Jeff Duggan, the creator of Portola Coffee Lab, will bring a new distillery to MAKE. Expect mostly single malt whiskey and brandy, plus coffee-infused spirits. anaheimmake.com

BEST BREWS

—GREG NAGEL

Lumino UNSUNG BREWING CO.

Tapping into Anaheim's rich German and Mexican lager heritage, this crisp and heady Mexican-style lager is brewed with traditional ingredients, including corn. Unsung creates a comic-universe for all of its beers, and Lumino is a fastball-wielding phenom who can save the day.

Fundamental Observation

BOTTLE LOGIC BREWING
Black beer, bourbon barrels, and vanilla beans meld together over several months to create this stunning stout. “F.O.”, as it's called amongst beer geeks, was the decadent sipper that won Best in Show at the 2018 Festival of Barrel-Aged Beer in Chicago.

Train to Beersel BRUERY TERREUX

The Anaheim brewery grabbed its first medal with this Belgian lambic-inspired sour beer in 2017, then won gold a year later at the prestigious World Beer Cup. It's aged in oak barrels with wild yeast and bacteria, a process that builds more complexity than wine aging.

Nobility NOBLE ALE WORKS

Winning a national award for IPA is a rarity. Repeating is legendary. Nobility is the winningest double IPA in our modern era, with four medals at the World Beer Cup and Great American Beer Festival to its name. Noble is a must-stop for any hop-head.

Fruitlands MODERN TIMES

While you wait for Modern Times' Leisuretown, you'll find many of their beers on tap at 18 Folds. Fruitlands is refreshingly thirst-quenching and fruity-tart; a perfect match for hand-folded soup dumplings.

EAT

DESSERT FIRST

Anaheim doesn't mess around when it comes to our favorite, final course. From highly-anticipated openings to our all-time top stops, the following shops and restaurants put dessert first, no matter when you want it.

NYC-bred and brand-new to Downtown Disney® District, BLACK TAP serves up CrazyShakes™: old-school milkshakes topped with unforeseen madness. Think frosted, decorated rims and all manner of candy, cookies, and accoutrement—even a cake slice. disneyland.disney.go.com

Self-described as the “home of the unicorn,” CRÈME AND SUGAR offers several variations on the theme, all complete with a mystical palette of pinks, blues, and purples and plenty of edible pixie dust. 6386 E. Santa Ana Canyon Road, Anaheim; 714-941-9059; cremeandsugar.com

One of O.C.’s best for frozen treats since 1972, HANS’ HOMEMADE ICE CREAM has opened a second location in the Packing House. Choose from 45 homemade flavors plus hand-dipped drumsticks and ice cream sandwiches. 440 S. Anaheim Blvd., Anaheim; 714-520-0445; hanshomemade.com

Center City’s HOUSE OF CHIMNEY CAKES is a purveyor of rolled Hungarian pastries that are crunchy on the outside and soft and doughy inside. Get yours filled with organic Straus soft serve or vegan Dole Whip. 173 W. Center St. Promenade, Anaheim; 714-603-785; thehouseofchimneycakes.com

JOE'S ITALIAN ICE began as a Philly-style Italian ice outpost in Garden Grove, then moved two blocks over to Anaheim to continue the tradition. With over 100 flavors and “Joe Lattis,” soft serve-Italian ice combinations, Joe’s is a refreshing end to a hot, sunny day. 2201 S. Harbor Blvd., Anaheim; 714-703-2100; joesice.com

Take a number at MARCELINE’S CONFECTIONERY before taking in their myriad Disney-themed goods, all beautifully arranged behind glass cases and up and down the walls. Chances are, the treats you loved inside the parks are also available to take home here. 1580 Disneyland Drive, Anaheim; 714-300-7922; disneyland.disney.go.com

SALT & STRAW is the Portland, Oregon-based ice cream that’s revolutionizing the West Coast—starting with its new Downtown Disney® District location. Stretch your palette with creative, chef-driven flavor combinations or trick your tastebuds with can’t-believe-it’s-not-ice-cream vegan options. 1550 Disneyland Drive E., Anaheim; 714-855-4321; disneyland.disney.go.com

From Hawaiian shave ice to tablesides s’mores stations, SNOWOPOLIS puts an entertaining spin on novelty sweets—including a $15, 24-karat gold-coated soft serve cone that’s every bit as Instagrammable as it sounds. 400 Disney Way, Anaheim; 714-746-7300; snowopolis.net

SOCKERBIT SWEET & SWEDISH has Scandinavian-style sweets you can mix, match, and take with you for later. A custom candy bag is perfect for a stroll around GardenWalk and the surrounding Anaheim Resort District. 321 W. Katella Ave., Anaheim; 657-208-1039; sockerbit.com

THE TEAM TRAVELER

Get the most out of team travel with our agenda of both parents-only and family-focused activities.

KIDS' SPORTING EVENTS AND TOURNAMENTS BRING FAMILIES from all over the country to Anaheim. But sitting through practice can be tedious—and even stressful—for parents. Why not drop off your team player and play for awhile on your own? Use these suggestions to find some well-deserved self care and to enjoy Anaheim while your athlete is gearing up for game day. Then read on for tips on where to turn break times into family time.

While They Play

On Thursday afternoons, the DOWNTOWN ANAHEIM CERTIFIED FARMER'S MARKET is the place to discover local flavor from farm stands and artisanal crafts vendors. W. Center St. Promenade and Lemon St., Anaheim; downtownanaheim.com

After drop-off, it's time to get your sweat on, too. Various levels and temperatures at THE YOGA MAT mean that practitioners with or without experience will find a class they like. 209 W. Center St. Promenade, Anaheim; 714-313-1614; theyogamatoc.com

During practice, Dad can relax in the barber's chair with a brew in hand. THE STATESMAN, a bar and barbershop, offers straight razor shaves, haircuts, and local beers on tap. 165 W. Center St. Promenade, Anaheim; 714-533-2727; thestatesmangrooming.com

Before & After Practice

Fill up as a family at JÄGERHAUS, where you'll experience Anaheim's Bavarian heritage in the form of fluffy, German-style pancakes. Order a side of protein and immune-boosting O.J. for your athlete. 2525 E. Ball Road, Anaheim; 714-520-9500; jagerhaus.net

If you've still got energy to burn, LUCKY STRIKE is a low-key way to play and dine together, with all the amenities—gastropub menu, full bar, high-definition TVs, and arcade games—that make bowling so much fun. 20 City Blvd., Orange; 714-937-5263; luckystrikesocial.com

DOWNTOWN DISNEY® DISTRICT doesn't require a ticket for entry, and two-hour validated parking with a $20 purchase makes this an ideal stop during your afternoon break. 1580 Disneyland Drive, Anaheim; 714-781-4565; disneyland.disney.go.com

Celebrate a successful game day with a special night out at the HONDA CENTER. Chart-topping names in music play here, as do the Harlem Globetrotters and the Anaheim Ducks. 2695 E. Katella Ave., Anaheim; 714-704-2400; hondacenter.com

AMERICAN SPORTS CENTERS As the home training facility for both USA Volleyball National Teams, expect a pro-level approach that translates to a powerful learning opportunity for kids. The 34 indoor courts not only make ASC the world's largest indoor court facility, but they provide a versatile foundation for volleyball, basketball, and indoor soccer, all with top-of-the-line SNA Sports equipment. *1500 S. FASHION ISLAND

A SHOPPER'S PARADISE

LUXURY BRANDS AND SMALL BOUTIQUES ALIKE MAKE ANAHEIM an incredible destination for shopping. Get ready to score major deals at nearby outlets, covet something splurge-worthy at Orange County's most influential malls, or spend the afternoon gazing over the Pacific while you browse oceanfront properties.

TOP-NOTCH SHOPS

SOUTH COAST PLAZA

A mecca for fashion, this mall is anchored by upscale department stores alongside top-name designer boutiques like Chanel, Dior, and Valentino. If you don't see what you're looking for right away, note the second shopping plaza across the street. 3333 Bristol St., Costa Mesa; 800-782-8888; southcoastplaza.com

FASHION ISLAND

With views of Newport Beach's pristine coastline in the distance, shoppers can enjoy live music in the outdoor plazas, high-end shops, and fresh cuisine from restaurants like Fig & Olive and True Food Kitchen. Kids can romp on the manicured lawns, and four-legged visitors are welcome. 401 Newport Center Drive, Newport Beach; 949-721-2000; shopfashionisland.com

CRYSTAL COVE

There's no denying that the most impressive aspect of this plaza is the expansive ocean view that runs parallel to the promenade of storefronts. After a relaxing morning perusing, stop for lunch at Newport favorite, Bear Flag Fish Co., with the surf in sight. 7845-8085 E. Coast Highway, Newport Beach; shopirvinecompany.com/centers/newport-beach/crystal-cove-shopping-center

SOCO/THE OC MIX

With its design focus, this indoor-outdoor collective houses a variety of boutiques and epicurean shops. Venture to the larger retail shops via the main parking lot for high-end home goods and furniture. 3313 Hyland Ave., Costa Mesa; 949-760-9150; shoptheocmix.com

A LITTLE MORE LAID BACK

DOWNTOWN DISNEY® DISTRICT

For shopping and entertainment that considers the customer experience closely, look no further than the Anaheim Resort District. World of Disney® and The Dress Shop are two great starting points for souvenirs, while brand-new additions Black Tap, Ballast Point, and premium ice creamery Salt & Straw are worthwhile stops for sustenance. 1580 Disneyland Drive, Anaheim; disneyland.disney.go.com

GARDENWALK

If you're staying in Anaheim, then you may be within walking distance of this multi-level entertainment and dining complex, where you can try on an oculus at Go VR Gaming, puzzle your way through an escape room, or take in a show at House of Blues' flagship location. Their shopping selection is limited to a few specialty stores, including Harley-Davidson. 400 W. Disney Way, Anaheim; 714-635-7400; anaheimgardenwalk.com

PLAY

MAINPLACE MALL

Browse designer goods at nearly 200 retailers and restaurants just one town over from Anaheim, including Macy's, H&M, and The Disney Store. If you have limited time and want to score big, scope out sales and special events on their website before you go. 2800 N. Main St., Santa Ana; 714-547-7800; shopmainplacemall.com

IRVINE SPECTRUM CENTER

Between browsing the 130 shops and eateries at this spacious outdoor mall, visitors can take a ride on the giant Ferris wheel, catch a movie at the 21-screen theater, or enjoy some laughs at Irvine Improv, where both up-and-comers and comedians you know share the mic. 670 Spectrum Center Drive, Irvine; 949-753-5180; shopirvinespectrum.com

PACIFIC CITY

This picturesque mall adjacent to downtown Huntington Beach includes trendy big-name stores, like Urban Outfitters and Sephora, an Equinox gym, and smaller shops. For lunch, we recommend Lemonade and Hans' Homemade Ice Cream, local eateries that are suited to the beachy setting. 21010 Pacific Coast Highway, Huntington Beach; 714-930-2345; gopacificcity.com

THE LAB ANTI-MALL AND THE CAMP

LAB, or Little American Business, is a collection of offbeat shops and hip, casual community spaces where you can grab a latte from Nook Coffee Bar or a vegan meal from Seabirds Kitchen. Across Bristol Street is a similar layout from owner Shaheen Sadeghi (the developer behind much of Center City, Anaheim). There, parking spaces greet you with wise sayings, while SEED People's Market has home goods and gifts you won't find elsewhere. 2930 Bristol St., Costa Mesa; 714-966-6660, thelab.com; 2937 Bristol St., Costa Mesa, 714-966-6661, thecampsite.com

THE DEAL ON DEALS

CITADEL OUTLETS

Conveniently located just 25 minutes from West Los Angeles, Orange County, and the Valley, this 700,000-square-foot property features a hotel, office buildings, and Los Angeles' only retail outlet center. Shop name brands including Michael Kors, Calvin Klein, and Banana Republic. Starbucks and Ruby's Diner are on hand for quick and reliable refueling. 100 Citadel Drive, Los Angeles; 323-888-1724; citadeloutlets.com

THE OUTLETS AT ORANGE

Orange County's largest outlet mall—a short drive from Anaheim—offers consumers the best prices on luxury goods at top-tier discount stores like Neiman Marcus Last Call and Saks Off Fifth. Explore a variety of entertainment venues, including Vans Skate Park, an IMAX movie theater and Lucky Strike, a luxury bowling alley. 20 City Blvd. W., Orange; 714-769-4001; simon.com/mall/the-outlets-at-orange

OLD TOWNE ORANGE

This quaint, 1-square-mile historic district with buildings dating back to 1888 is the perfect setting to relax and meander through quiet antique and upcycled home decor shops—many of which are reasonably priced—or stop into local art galleries. Make a day of it and add on a walking food tour of the diverse local cuisine. S. Glassell St. and W. Chapman Ave., Orange

OUTLETS AT SAN CLEMENTE

Orange County's newest seaside shopping destination is the Outlets at San Clemente, a breezy, Spanish-colonial outdoor mall. Here you'll find a variety of eateries and discounted designer boutiques, including Calvin Klein, Cole Haan, Eddie Bauer, and White House | Black Market. For specialty boutiques, drive 10 minutes to the charming street, Avenida del Mar. 101 W. Avenida Vista Hermosa, San Clemente; 949-535-2323; outletsatsanclemente.com

THE BEST COAST

Put your toes in the sand whether it's June or January at any of these nearby beach towns.

THERE ARE MANY WONDERFUL ways to enjoy Orange County's 42 miles of coastline, but a day at the beach is one of the best and simplest. Equally iconic? Taking a mini-road trip down state Route 1, or Pacific Coast Highway. Turn up the music, roll down the windows, and let the fresh ocean air rejuvenate you. From Anaheim, first head northwest to Sunset Beach, then travel south for awe-inspiring views, distinct coastal communities, and plenty of adventurous activities.

SAN CLEMENTE

SUNSET BEACH

⌚ Restrooms, showers 🚽 Bike path
23 MILES FROM ANAHEIM

Start out in this sleepy little beach town, where just 1,200 residents share with visitors one of the widest beaches in Southern California. There's free street parking and a lovely array of quaint shops and seaside restaurants. Parallel to the sand, 14 acres of grass and shade called the "Green Belt" offer a peaceful place to pause. visithuntingtonbeach.com

HUNTINGTON BEACH

⌚ On Dog Beach only 🚽 Restrooms, showers
🚴 Bike path 🔥 Fire pits
21 MILES FROM ANAHEIM

Just 10 minutes south near Main Street and the Pacific City shopping mall are the opportune surf conditions for which Huntington is renowned. Visitors can take a lesson at Corky Carroll's legendary school or watch from the pier as talented surfers make the waves look playful. Afterward, the 1.5-mile Huntington Dog Beach is the perfect place to run with pups. surfcityusa.com

NEWPORT BEACH

🚻 Restrooms, showers 🚽 Bike path
20 MILES FROM ANAHEIM
Helm a Duffy boat, stand up on a paddleboard, or cast a line while enjoying the largest recreational harbor on the West Coast. Newport Beach also has 10 miles of ocean-facing coastline with fun activities for any age—feel the lift of nostalgia aboard the Ferris wheel at Balboa Fun Zone, rent bikes and cruise the boardwalk, or swim the picturesque waters at Big Corona. visitnewportbeach.com

CRYSTAL COVE STATE PARK

⌚ Allowed on sidewalks 🚽 Restrooms, showers 🚽 Bike path
25 MILES FROM ANAHEIM

This hidden gem overlooks the water between Corona del Mar and Laguna Beach. If it's undisrupted nature you prefer, you'll find it from the cliffs to the beach. Or visit the charming historic district with 29 restored cottages from the 1930s. Walk across the sand for lunch at The Beachcomber Cafe or the Crystal Cove Shake Shack (no relation to Danny Meyer), and finish up by searching the tide pools for marine life. crystalcovestatepark.org

LAGUNA BEACH

⌚ Allowed on most beaches
🚻 Restrooms, showers
26 MILES FROM ANAHEIM

A world-renowned arts colony and home to the annual Pageant of the Masters living pictures show, Laguna Beach also boasts secluded coves, tide pools, and even beachside basketball courts. For the prettiest views, turn off before you reach downtown Laguna at El Moro Beach, or continue past the shops to Thousand Steps Beach. If you want more of an adventure, grab a skimboard, go snorkeling, or schedule a whale-watching tour off the coast of Laguna on boats that depart from Newport and Dana Point. visitlagunabeach.com

SAN CLEMENTE

⌚ Restrooms, showers 🔥 Fire pits
37 MILES FROM ANAHEIM

Bordering San Clemente and San Diego County, San Onofre Beach is a must-visit for surfers, with mellow longboarding waves and vans pulled right up to the sand. Conclude your trip with a leisurely walk along the 2.5-mile San Clemente Beach Trail. Head down the pier for a picture-perfect sunset and to admire the Spanish colonial architecture onshore. North Camino El Real offers excellent dinner options—try Pizza Port, La Colombiana, or The Riders Club Cafe—before you take Interstate 5 back home. sanclemente.com

CATALINA ISLAND ON THE CATALINA FLYER

For almost 30 years, the Catalina Flyer catamaran has been providing daily service to beautiful Catalina Island, located about 26 miles from Newport Beach. It's a spectacular ride to an equally remarkable island, which features everything from glass-bottom boats and scuba diving to snorkeling, fishing, hiking, and many great shops and restaurants. Balboa Pavilion, 400 Main St., Newport Beach; 800-830-7744; catalinainfo.com

DANA WHARF

Jump aboard a charter that departs from Dana Point Harbor for daily, two-hour rides. The summer season sees 100-foot-long blue whales, while winter travelers are likely to spot a migrating gray whale. Sightings of dolphins, sea lions, sea-faring birds, and the occasional shark are standard year-round. 34675 Golden Lantern, Dana Point; 888-224-0603; danawharf.com

JOSHUA TREE NATIONAL PARK

With traffic, you may be looking at a three-hour drive, but the otherworldly landscape will be well worth it. Hike, climb, or boulder through more than 1,200 square miles of desert, dotted with native, spiky Joshua Trees. The quaint town near the park entrance is the perfect pit stop for a meal before or after. 6554 Park Blvd., Joshua Tree; 760-366-1855; www.nps.gov/jotr/index.htm

KNOTT'S BERRY FARM

The 160-acre amusement park is just minutes from Anaheim, but definitely make a day of it if you have the time! With a near-vertical drop and five stomach-turning inversions, its HangTime is the only dive coaster on the West Coast, featuring the only negative-g stall loop on the hemisphere. 8039 Beach Blvd., Buena Park; 714-220-5200; knotts.com

LA BREA TAR PITS

Ever wonder what Los Angeles was like 40,000 years ago, when saber-toothed cats and woolly mammoths roamed the area? Most of the specimens here were discovered on-site, and visitors can even watch bones being cleaned and repaired through big observation windows in the paleontological workspace. The L.A. County Museum of Art (LACMA) is right next door. 5801 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles; 213-763-3499; tarpits.org; lacma.org

LA JOLLA

Pair scenery with culture in this neighborhood in northern San Diego. Walk the perimeter of the Salk Institute for Biological Studies, a fine example of Louis Kahn's architecture. Down the street, you can take a steep hike to beautiful (but clothing-optional) Black's Beach. Bird Rock Coffee Roasters is a great stop for an award-winning coffee. Stay in the area for lunch and shopping at cozy boutiques, then while away the afternoon at the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego. lajollabythesea.com

LEGOLAND

Just an hour south of Anaheim is a park that's built for fun. "LEGO® City: Deep Sea Adventure" is a living aquarium riders enter via submarine to search for digitally-rendered treasure. One of eight such resorts worldwide, this location features the first Legoland® Water Park. If you stay overnight, book a room at the new Legoland® Castle Hotel. 1 Legoland Drive, Carlsbad; 760-918-5346; legoland.com/california

LONG BEACH

This coastal city is the ideal getaway for getting to know over 500 species of marine life from various regions of the Pacific Ocean.

At the Aquarium of the Pacific, explore interactive exhibits where you can touch sharks or feed lorikeet birds. 2019 AT THE DISNEYLAND® RESORT

"I ONLY HOPE THAT WE NEVER LOSE SIGHT OF ONE THING—THAT IT WAS ALL STARTED BY A MOUSE."

Walt Disney, 1954

STAR WARS: GALAXY'S EDGE

GET YOUR EARS ON: A MICKEY AND MINNIE CELEBRATION

Beginning in January, Disneyland® Park will celebrate 90 years of magic with the characters that started it all: Mickey Mouse and Minnie Mouse. Along with limited-release snacks, merchandise, and decor throughout the park, stay after dark to enjoy the high-energy projections show, "Mickey's Mix Magic," starting Jan. 18. The festive "Mickey's Soundsational Parade" will return Jan. 25, and in February, Minnie will scatter Valentines for Mickey—and any visitors who wish to participate.

LIVE YOUR "STAR WARS" ADVENTURE

Come summer, ticket holders will be the first to experience Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge, the largest single-land expansion ever at the Disneyland® Resort. Step into the "Star Wars" universe with two new attractions and original music by Academy Award-winning composer John Williams. Enter into battle with Kylo Ren in Star Wars: Rise of the Resistance, or helm the infamous starship during Millennium Falcon: Smugglers Run. Integrate these highly-anticipated opportunities with the Play Disney Parks app for an even more unforgettable experience.

A CALIFORNIA ADVENTURE WHIRLWIND

Two additional attractions will complete Pixar Pier, new to Disney California Adventure® Park as of 2018. Jessie's Critter Carousel is your classic merry-go-round, but with a toy box full of carousel animals wrangled by Jessie the Yodeling Cowgirl. The Inside Out Emotional Whirlwind will take you and your feelings for a spin in color-coded suspended carriages. As you explore the rest of the park, keep your eyes open for superhero Captain Marvel.

TOP TIP

Make the most of your visit with by downloading the Disneyland® app. For a small fee, the Disney MaxPass add-on lets you make FASTPASS reservations to skip the standby line for must-do rides. It also allows you a full day of unlimited Disney PhotoPass downloads, so you can share photos from character breakfasts, rides, and Disney photographers throughout the parks. Whether you choose MaxPass or not, the free smartphone app can help you make purchases, look up wait times, seek out characters, make dining reservations, locate Wi-Fi, and discover live entertainment.

KNOTT'S BERRY FARM

Family fun is always in season at Knott's Berry Farm. Start the year by celebrating with the Peanuts Gang at Knott's Peanuts Celebration, then enjoy one-of-a-kind tasty creations in spring at the Knott's Boysenberry Festival. Extended summer hours means more time for roller coasters and funnel cakes. October weekends usher in the family friendly Knott's Spooky Farm, and the holiday season shines brightly during Knott's Merry Farm.

DOWNTOWN'S UPSWING

IT'S NO SECRET THAT WALT DISNEY LOVED A GOOD DOWNTOWN. He modeled one of Disneyland® Park's first "lands" after a typical Midwestern Main Street, where today it greets all who enter—over 18 million visitors annually. Built in 2001, Anaheim's Downtown Disney® District embraces a similar welcoming spirit.

Previously a traditional retail center at the parks' periphery, Downtown Disney® District has resurfaced as its own immersive, interactive destination. Although you're bound to pass through it if you stay on resort property, the hub of shops, restaurants, and entertainment is open to everyone, no ticket necessary. Be sure to ask for parking validation when you make a $20 purchase or more from select retailers.

SHOP DISNEY

The merchandise in store at WORLD OF DISNEY® stretches from floor to ceiling, offering something for every fan of every popular franchise, including Pixar and "Star Wars." Be taken by surprise when posters—and an entire animated wall—stir to life as you pass. At DISNEY HOME, let your discriminating eye for design help you find just the conversation-starting accessory or gadget you need. Meanwhile, the fashion-minded in your party will be drawn to THE DISNEY DRESS SHOP, where customers can try on outfits inspired by guest trends and beloved characters.

EAT & DRINK

As a dining destination, Downtown Disney® has plenty to offer visitors in 2019. BURGER & SHAKE by Black Tap is a New York City export known for its extensive menu of burgers and viral CrazyShakes™, milkshakes piled high with toppings. San Diego's BALLAST POINT, another recent opening, features beers that are anything but average, most notably their multi-award winning Sculpin IPA. If premium ice cream is what you're craving, Portland-based SALT & STRAW is an unmatched antidote, with flavors ranging from simple to extravagant.

BE ENTERTAINED

You're here—why not stay awhile? Book a lane at SPLITSVILLE LUXURY LANES, a modern take on bowling with retro style. Live music everyday, an atypically elevated menu of sushi rolls and sliders, and craft cocktails will keep you rolling for hours. For virtual reality adventurers, STAR WARS: SECRETS OF THE EMPIRE is a multisensory, hyper-reality experience at The VOID that transports guests through time-space by way of oculus. Working undercover as a stormtrooper in a team of four, you'll be tasked with unearthing intelligence to help the burgeoning rebellion. Lastly, if perusing Disney-inspired artworks is its own special thrill, head straight to WONDERGROUND GALLERY to take in (and, perhaps, take home) commissioned and limited-edition pieces by a curated group of artists.

MUZEO'S CARNEGIE LIBRARY

ART ON VIEW

First Stop: Muzeo Museum and Cultural Center

Anchoring Center City, Anaheim, is Muzeo, where rotating exhibitions focus on important historic, cultural, and artistic occasions. This Aug. 24 through Nov. 15, they'll debut a new exhibition by the City of Anaheim focusing on Japanese residents who were forced into incarceration camps in Poston, Arizona, before and after World War II. This 5,000-square-foot exhibit will feature artifacts and memorabilia from that time in the city's history, as well as give a first-hand look at the dehumanizing experience from Anaheim residents' perspectives.

On permanent display at the adjacent 111-year-old Carnegie Library is another story of Anaheim, this time from its inception. Fossils and indigenous crafts make way for 19th-century citrus farming tools, and, finally, objects from the early days of Disneyland® Park and Angel Stadium.

MORE IN ANAHEIM CENTER GALLERY

Check out a showcase of multimedia works in this gallery that features rotating exhibits within the Downtown Anaheim Community Center. Curated by the Cultural and Heritage Commission, the project space offers a glimpse at up-and-coming and established artists from Anaheim and the Orange County area. 250 E. Center St., Anaheim; 714-765-4500; anaheim.net/205/center-gallery

WONDERGROUND GALLERY

Featuring pieces inspired by Disney's rich history of animation, this Downtown Disney® District gallery provides a new interpretation of beloved characters. Prints, postcards, and original artwork are among the offerings at this charming space, which often welcomes artists for special events and signings. 1580 S. Disneyland Drive, Anaheim; 714-781-4565; disneyparksmerchandise.com

ARTISTS REPUBLIC GALLERY

They reopened at Anaheim GardenWalk

in Feb. 2017, after seven years showcasing emerging contemporary artists in Laguna Beach. Now, their 3,000-square-foot space puts visual art exhibitions, live music, and more on display. They also curate an upstairs "Mural Garden" with 17 large-scale works painted right onto the façade. 400 W. Disney Way, Anaheim; 949-988-0603; artists-public.com

WITHIN TEN MILES THE HILBERT MUSEUM OF CALIFORNIA ART

The Hilberts' impressive personal collection of California Scene Paintings is housed on the Chapman University campus in the neighboring city of Orange. Featured artists Eyvind Earle, Mary Blair, Phil Paradise, and Phil Dike all worked for Disney Studios; see the influence in rotating exhibitions here. 167 N. Atchison St., Orange; 714-516-5880; hilbertmuseum.com

BOWERS MUSEUM

Voted the best museum in O.C. by readers of The Orange County Register, their in-depth exploration focuses on civilizations around the world. The museum takes visitors on a cultural dive through special and ongoing exhibitions which, in 2019, will cover subject matter from Nepali thangka painting to Chinese couture designer Guo Pei. 2002 N. Main St., Santa Ana; 714-567-3600; bowers.org

MUCKENTHALER CULTURAL CENTER

Built in 1924, this nine-acre estate was donated to the city of Fullerton in 1965. Now

"The Muck" is open for tours, holiday events, performances, and gallery exhibits. Each summer, they produce a jazz festival with weekly sets on their outdoor amphitheater stage. 1201 W. Malvern Ave., Fullerton; 714-738-6595; themuck.org

CALIFORNIA SCENARIO

You'll find Isamu Noguchi's spacious sculpture garden, a unique representation of six various geographies throughout California, just a short walk from South Coast Plaza and the Segerstrom Center for the Arts. It's a peaceful escape from the hustle of traffic and crowds, with its centerpiece dedicated to the artist's friendship with his commissioner, Henry Segerstrom. 611 Anton Blvd., Costa Mesa; 714-327-1374; travelcostamesa.com

WORTH THE DRIVE

LOS ANGELES ART MUSEUMS

If you have the time, devote a full day to seeing art in L.A. Such a task can be daunting, so start in one of three areas. Downtown, the Broad Museum and Museum of Contemporary Art are within walking distance. In central L.A., you could see the comprehensive Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the Pacific Design Center, where many galleries and artist studios share space and where HBO's "Westworld" was filmed. Finally, The Getty is synonymous with European art, architecture, and views of the city. 221 S. Grand Ave., Los Angeles; 213-232-6200; thebroad.org; 5905 Wilshire Blvd., Los

Angeles, 323-857-6000, lacma.org; 1200 Getty Center Drive, Los Angeles, 310-440-7300, getty.edu

LAGUNA ART MUSEUM AND GALLERIES

Laguna Beach is an arts destination in its own right. Fairs and festivals like the Sawdust Festival, Festival of Arts, and Pageant of the Masters—where actors replicate famous artworks with living tableaux—are must-sees during summer months. Overlooking Main Beach, Laguna Art Museum showcases important Californian artists. Art walks take place on first Thursdays, but you don't have to attend those to explore the boutique galleries along Coast Highway and intersecting side streets. Laguna Beach; 949-497-9229; visitlagunabeach.com

3 IF YOU HAVE THREE DAYS...

IT'S BE A SHORT TRIP, BUT

even three days can be amazing in Anaheim. Thankfully, many of the city's must-see destinations are within close proximity—so if you're up for a jam-packed whirlwind of a good time, our three-day itinerary will help you make the most of every minute. Ready? Let's go!

DAY

MORNING

To do DISNEYLAND® PARK in one day, make sure to arrive early—around 7:30 AM. If you purchased three-day admission and are staying at the Disneyland® Resort, use a Magic Morning, currently Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, to enter the park early. (If not, it's probably best to avoid those and weekend days.) Use the morning to check off all your must-rides, like the Matterhorn Bobsleds and Space Mountain.

AFTERNOON

Recharge with more nostalgic rides and relaxing activities, like shopping for souvenirs, meeting characters, or sitting down to a long lunch or early dinner. Live performances are another great option for when you're ready to get off your feet.

EVENING

Disneyland® Park's nightly fireworks can be seen from many vantage points throughout the city, including hotel balconies and rooftop bars, like THE FIFTH. If you stay in the park after dark, check the events schedule online to find the evening's nighttime spectaculars. disneyland.disney.go.com, thefifthoc.com

MORNING

Today, return to Disneyland® Resort or borrow from one of our other itineraries. DISNEY CALIFORNIA ADVENTURE® PARK carries the theme of its home state to epic proportions, from Cars Land's colorful desert landscape to adventures under the sea with Crush, the talking sea turtle from "Finding Nemo" and "Finding Dory."

AFTERNOON

This eight-land theme park is famous for its Pixar storylines and characters, with attractions based on "Toy Story," "The Incredibles," "Monsters, Inc." and more. This year, the new PIXAR PIER will welcome two additional attractions, the Inside Out Emotional Whirlwind and Jessie's Critter Carousel.

EVENING

Finish up with a whole new world of shopping, dining and entertainment at DOWNTOWN DISNEY® DISTRICT. Knock 'em down at Splitsville for the ultimate in family fun, where you can bowl to great music, hand-rolled sushi, and a proper drinks menu. For more information on Downtown Disney® District's revitalization, see p. 54. disneyland.disney.go.com

MORNING

Get in a fun and challenging workout at ROCK CITY CLIMBING, Orange County's indoor climbing gym. Located in Anaheim Hills, it's the perfect way to build up an appetite for the hearty sandwiches and salads on the lunch menu at REUNION KITCHEN AND DRINK. rockcityclimbing.com, reunionkitchen.net

AFTERNOON

Explore a new neighborhood in Anaheim: CENTER CITY. Center Street Promenade is home to Muzeo and Pop! Comics, as well as Okayama Kobo Bakery, where you'll want to refuel with a coffee and Japanese pastry. ctrctyanaheim.com

EVENING

For dinner, you have options. Everyone can choose what they want at the ANAHEIM PACKING HOUSE, a multi-level, open-plan warehouse stocked with vendors. Hop on ART, or ANAHEIM RESORT TRANSIT, to reach the final stop on your itinerary, Platinum Triangle. From there, it's an easy walk to the pro sports stadiums where the Angels and the Ducks play. anaheimpackingdistrict.com, rideart.org

KNOTT'S SOAK CITY

IF YOU HAVE FIVE DAYS...

Now you're talking. A couple extra days in Anaheim makes doing a lot more possible. You've got time to find thrills beyond the usual places, discover unique culinary and craft beer destinations, and properly treat yourself. Start with the three-day itinerary, then add:

DAY 4

MORNING

Chances are, you came to Anaheim for the world's best theme parks, so don't stop before you visit KNOTT'S BERRY FARM. With unrivaled coasters and Camp Snoopy, a land designed especially for young kids, it's sure to satisfy any customer. knotts.com

AFTERNOON

Let the kids unleash their wild sides at KNOTT'S SOAK CITY. 23 slides, a wave pool, lazy river, and interactive beach house for kids comprise O.C.'s largest water park. knotts.com/play/soak-city

EVENING

Back in Anaheim, you'll want to keep dinner simple. CORTINA'S ITALIAN MARKET AND PIZZERIA satisfies comfort-food cravings like spaghetti and meatballs, although the selection of pastas, pizzas, and sandwiches makes it difficult to decide what to order. Locals have loved this institution, with its full bakery and attached specialty market, for over 50 years. cortinasitalianfood.com

DAY 5

MORNING

Time to relax! Book a tee time at one of the area's incredible golf courses or make an appointment for a massage at the HEALTH CLUB AT HILTON ANAHEIM for the perfect reset. We encourage splurging on a spa package like "The California Lift" or "The Dream Deluxe." hiltonanaheimhotel.com

AFTERNOON

Spend a few hours at SOUTH COAST PLAZA or THE OUTLETS AT ORANGE, where you'll be sure to find a special something (or somethings) to remind you of your trip. southcoastplaza.com, simon.com/mall/the-outlets-at-orange

EVENING

Take the evening to enjoy the LA PALMA BEER TRAIL—a six-mile pathway to some of the best small-batch beers O.C. has to offer. Using our list of breweries on p. 26, plan on visiting Asylum Brewing, Bottle Logic, Bruery Terreux, Hoparazzi Brewing, All American Ale Works, Phantom Ales, and more in one straight shot. bit.ly/LaPalmaBeerTrail

IRVINE SPECTRUM CENTER

With a full week to visit, you may never want to go home again! Now that you've gotten to know Anaheim, use our city as your launchpad for exploring Southern California. Take a day trip to Orange County's beaches, Los Angeles, or San Diego. Then check out our neighboring towns, with a final night out to experience top talent. Use the three- and five-day itineraries as your base, then add ...

DAY 6

MORNING

We'd be remiss not to include a beach day. In Huntington Beach, break from the sand and sun for lunch and shopping at PACIFIC CITY, an outdoor, ocean-facing mall near Main Street. 21010 Pacific Coast Highway, Huntington Beach; 714-930-2345; gopacificcity.com

AFTERNOON

From Surf City, more of O.C.'s beautiful beach towns are a scenic drive south on Pacific Coast Highway. Make a quick detour to BALBOA ISLAND for a chocolate-covered Balboa Bar, then head to LAGUNA BEACH, where El Moro and Thousand Steps Beach offer picturesque views that are worth the walk. balboaisland.com; visitlagunabeach.com

EVENING

En route back to Anaheim is IRVINE SPECTRUM CENTER, a huge outdoor mall with lots of easy dinner options, the celebrity-studded comedy club Irvine Improv, and a 21 IMAX and RPX movie theater where you can sit back and relax for the night. irvinespectrumcenter.com

DAY 7

MORNING

See original artwork behind the Disney universe during curated exhibitions at the HILBERT MUSEUM OF CALIFORNIA ART at Chapman University. Then browse OLD TOWNE, ORANGE, for shops overflowing with antique finds. Provisions Market offers Portola Coffee and well-sourced charcuterie, and 1888 Center displays Orange history across from their wall of books. hilbertmuseum.com, cityoforange.org

AFTERNOON

Seek out an unforgettable meal at one of many culturally diverse destinations. WESTMINSTER is your best bet for Vietnamese specialties. Koreatown outpost MYUNG DONG KYOJA serves delicious hand-cut noodles. Or fill up on falafel at the Middle Eastern restaurants in Anaheim's Little Arabia, like OLIVE TREE. yelp.com

EVENING

Live up your last night with a live concert in the heart of Anaheim. Head to HOUSE OF BLUES for something soulful, HONDA CENTER for the biggest names in pop, or the CITY NATIONAL GROVE OF ANAHEIM for lesser-known but far more intimate acts. houseofblues.com/anaheim, hondacenter.com, citynationalgroveofanaheim.com

7 VENUES WE LOVE

Live music and entertainment take on a limitless variety of forms and styles at these local stages.

HOUSE OF BLUES

Their new flagship location at Anaheim GardenWalk offers four dedicated areas: a 2,200-capacity music hall, the VIP Foundation Room, an intimate new performance space, and the expanded restaurant and bar. All reflect the brand's 25-year-strong passion for music in the Southern tradition. 400 Disney Way, Anaheim; 714-778-2583; houseofblues.com/anaheim

HONDA CENTER

When the world's top-billed musical artists—think Justin Timberlake and Elton John—pass through Orange County, they stop here. Though the indoor arena is home to the Anaheim Ducks, it also plays host to several concerts throughout the year, accommodating over 18,000 viewers. 2695 E. Katella Ave., Anaheim; 714-704-2400; hondacenter.com

CITY NATIONAL GROVE OF ANAHEIM

Just around the corner from the Honda Center, this intimate, stately venue channels old Hollywood. Everyone will find something they love, from contemporary jazz and easy listening to top pop ballads and family-friendly entertainment. *2200 E. THE RANCH SALOON

Orange County meets Nashville at this intimate venue that gives country singers a place in the local music scene. Reserve a table or join the crowd around the stage to two-step or line dance the night away. Live music brings down the house every Friday. 1025 E. Ball Road, Anaheim; 714-817-4200; theranch.com/saloon

TEATRO MARTINI

Dinner theater gets an upgrade at this cabaret- and burlesque-inspired adult show. Rotating variety acts include comedy, cirque, music, and magic, while a four-course menu and signature martinis add to the enjoyment. 7600 Beach Blvd., Buena Park; 844-249-7865; teatromartini.com

THE OBSERVATORY

This Santa Ana mainstay is a home base for indie darlings, hardcore alt-rockers, jazz acts, and blues bands. The smaller Constellation Room, where local musicians have launched their careers, provides an intimate stage within the larger venue. Time it right to take in multiple shows in a single evening. 3503 S. Harbor Blvd., Santa Ana; 714-957-0600; observatoryoc.org

SEGERSTROM CENTER FOR THE ARTS

The dynamic performing arts center features an exciting 2019 lineup. Highlights include the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, Third Coast Percussion, an impressive roster of international dance companies, and a lively Broadway series featuring "Fiddler on the Roof," "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory," and more. 600 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa; 714-556-2787; scfta.org

GET READY

Finalizing your itinerary has never been easier with new transportation offerings, maps, and more.

ARTIC

AN ANAHEIM RESORT TRANSPORTATION (ART) SHUTTLE

WAYS ABOUND

From our reliable cross-town bus network to accessible trains and transit options, everywhere you want to go in SoCal starts right here in Anaheim.

WITH FOUR AIRPORTS A SHORT DRIVE AWAY, PLENTY OF PUBLIC transportation options, and super-simple shuttles, it's never been easier to get here—and once you arrive, exploring the city and its surrounding areas is just as straightforward. Between car rental options, the prevalence of ridesharing, and the convenience of ART, there's more than one route to wherever you plan to go. Consider this your definitive guide to getting here, getting around, and making the most of your Anaheim adventure!

Catch a Shuttle

All around Anaheim, shuttles create a convenient and cost-effective network of transportation.

AIRPORT SHUTTLES

Circulating between hotels and airports, these are a smart option for travelers. Many hotels offer their own complimentary shuttles, but a few local names to know are The Disneyland® Resort Express, dre.coachusa.com; Mickey's Space Ship Shuttle, mickeysairportbus.com; Super Shuttle, super-shuttle.com; Prime Time Shuttle, primetimeshuttle.com; and Karmel Shuttle, karmel.com.

ANAHEIM RESORT TRANSPORTATION (ART)
Connecting all the major destinations within and around Anaheim, ART is a hop-on, hop-off service with flat one-way or by-the-day rates. They recently introduced their Center City/Platinum Triangle line. With rides beginning at 6:00 am, it's now a quick commute from Center City to Anaheim Regional Transportation Intermodal Center (ARTIC), which is within walking distance of Honda Center and Angel Stadium. rideart.org

MEET FRAN

In 2019, ART will introduce FRAN, a.k.a. Free Rides Around the Neighborhood. The service will allow for efficient exploration of key Anaheim areas, including within Center City. rideart.org

Ride the Rails

Two passenger railroads make it easy to explore Anaheim and beyond. Buy a ticket and step aboard at Anaheim's ARTIC station, then take in the passing scenery as your train speeds away.

AMTRAK

The Pacific Surfliner line runs from San Luis Obispo to San Diego with oceanfront views along the way. Riders can look for savings on Disneyland® Resort tickets at pacificsurfliner.com/disney.

METROLINK

Useful routes transport riders in nearly every direction: north to L.A., southwest to the beaches and east to the metropolitan areas near the San Bernardino Mountains. metrolinktrains.com

Take a Bus

Orange County Transportation Authority carries passengers all over the county with 77 comprehensive routes. Riders can also find a useful trip planner and receive mobile alerts that inform them about the next bus coming to their nearest stop. octa.net

Get in the Driver's Seat

Though you can find car rental businesses at airports, there are many within the Anaheim Resort district catering to all budgets, such as Enterprise Rent-A-Car and Avis Car Rental. enterprise.com; avis.com

Disneyland® Park-ing

Whether or not you drive to the park, new developments at Disneyland® Resort will increase pedestrian safety and improve traffic flow in 2019. A new 6,500-space parking structure and pedestrian bridge over Magic Way will allow visitors to reach Disneyland® Park's main entrance via the Downtown Disney® District and eliminate foot traffic at the intersection of Disneyland Drive and Magic Way.

Call a Car

If you aren't renting a car, hiring a taxi or driver is a great option for seeing more of the city. Yellow Cab of Greater Orange County and VIP Limousines & Coaches are two reputable organizations, or you can connect with Anaheim's network of rideshare apps like Uber and Lyft. yellowcab.com; viplimos.us; uber.com; lyft.com

I AM AN AMERICAN: Japanese Incarceration in Time of Fear

The Unknown History of Anaheim's Japanese Pioneers

Japanese Free Methodist Sunday School - 1950's

FROM August 24 - November 15, 2019, the City of Anaheim presents the story of an amazing testament of courage and determination of its Japanese American pioneers and their descendants before and after WWII.

Anaheim High School was the center of North Orange County education for this community where they established businesses and a church prior to WWII. Anaheim was attractive for these families to return and rebuild with the City becoming a center for local Japanese American commerce and religion in Orange County.

This 5,000 square foot exhibit will feature personal testimonials, artifacts and memorabilia as well as give a first-hand look at the Poston, Arizona incarceration camp experience which affected and devastated those in Anaheim and Orange County from 1942 - 1945.

A Must See for those that Visit Anaheim.

INTRODUCING THE GROVE DISTRICT

JUST MINUTES AWAY FROM THE ANAHEIM RESORT DISTRICT, NEIGHBORING CITY GARDEN GROVE is expanding to meet the demand for numerous hotels, innovative restaurant concepts, a walkable shopping area, and simplified public transportation.

EAT

SteelCraft opened their pilot shipping-container food hall in Long Beach in 2017, and they're already launching two additional locations based on the success of their first. You read that right—each of the vendors operate out of side-by-side steel containers in a compound built for foodies. When SteelCraft Garden Grove opens in early 2019, expect big flavors from a variety of purveyors serving many different cuisines, plus Beachwood Brewing Co., Dark Horse Coffee Roasters, an organic garden, arcade, and a stage. www.steelfcrafthub.com

PLAY

The entrepreneur behind the Anaheim Packing District and much of Center City, Anaheim, is famous for converting buildings—an old marmalade-making warehouse, for one—into booming businesses. Soon, his team will restore and repurpose 17 houses in Garden Grove into independently-owned shops and restaurants, forming a walkable community hub colored by the warmth and charm of the original buildings. labholding.com

STAY

The Grove was started by nine modern hotels to expand the scope of accommodations available to Anaheim and O.C. visitors. Spanning a one-mile stretch of Harbor Boulevard south of Disneyland® Resort and the Anaheim Convention Center, the properties collectively offer 3,000 rooms and over 85,000 square feet of event space to their guests. Three boutique hotels soon will join the group, which includes familiar brands Wyndham, Hampton Inn, Hilton, Hyatt Regency, Marriott, and more. grovedistrictanaheimresort.com

PLAN

In 2019, the Orange County Transportation Authority will continue construction on its first modern streetcar. Connecting Santa Ana to Garden Grove, the new transit option will make 10 stops in each direction, linking the Santa Ana Regional Transportation Center to the intersection of Harbor Boulevard and Westminster Avenue in Garden Grove. octa.net

Enjoy the sights, not the stops.

Whether you're in Orange County for business or pleasure, adding traffic to your schedule is certainly not something you want to do. Thankfully, The Toll Roads will get you to and through Orange County nonstop because The Toll Roads have less traffic and all payment is electronic.

Visitors driving their own car can use the 73, 133, 241 or 261 Toll Roads and pay online five days before or after their trip with the online payment option at TheTollRoads.com. Visitors driving rental cars will have tolls paid through their rental agreement in most cases.*
